

FEE DISCLOSURES

GENERAL FEE DISCLOSURES

1. There is no initial joining fee.
2. There is no additional fee for visiting the Gym, other than the membership fee or the personal training fee.
3. The membership fee entitles you to use the services of the Gym. This includes, attendance and participation in all Gym Nation normal scheduled classes (unless specifically advised the class or activity attracts an additional fee, or is otherwise restricted), and attendance and participation in 'open gym' sessions.
4. When undertaking a personal training session, the fee for the training session entitles you to receive training and instruction for the advised duration of the session. Persons who undertake personal training and who do not have a current and recurring membership are not entitled to participate in training classes and 'open gym sessions'.
5. New members are provided with a 48 hour cooling off period beginning from the time they sign the membership agreement. If a new member wants to cancel their membership within this period they must notify Gym Nation in writing within the 48 hour period.
6. Membership fees are payable fortnightly in advance by setting up of a debit facility. Gym Nation uses an external direct debit service provider who collects membership fees on behalf of Gym Nation.
7. Members may set up a direct debit authority with the service provider and can elect to have funds debited direct to a nominated bank account or charged to a credit card. The fees for using this service are payable by the member and are disclosed below.
8. Fees for personal training sessions are payable direct to Gym Nation and must be paid in advance of undertaking the personal training session. Alternatively, members may deposit monies direct into the Gym Nation Serious Fitness bank account, details of which are provided below.
9. Recurring memberships will be ongoing unless terminated by the member by providing 14 days notice. Six month and twelve month prepaid memberships terminated before the completion of the prepaid period will be recalculated based on the normal monthly recurring rate and the unused portion refunded on a pro-rata basis less an administrative charge. Gym Nation reserves the right to change its membership rates at any time without notice.
10. Personal training sessions are generally payable in advance, and therefore, are not subject to specific term, unless purchased as a prepaid block of 5 or 10 sessions. Personal training sessions purchased as a block are not transferrable and must be consumed within six months from the date of purchase. Members who undertake personal training sessions are entitled to do so at a discount. Members who purchase a block of training sessions and who subsequently terminate their membership can continue to consume their unused training sessions at the purchased discount rate.
11. Scheduled personal training sessions can be postponed or rescheduled without penalty provided notice of not less than 24 hours is provided to the trainer. Late cancellations or failure to show up to a personal training session are not refundable.
12. Memberships are not transferrable.
13. New members may suspend their membership or cancel their membership in the event of sickness, physical incapacity, or any other reason accepted by Gym Nation. The suspension or cancellation of a membership must be in writing and for a minimum two week period. There is no fee for suspending a membership.
